ASSOCIATION HOLDS INTERESTING SESSION

Appropriate New Year's Program Rendered.

Young Peoples' Society of Calvary (Evangelical Church Met Last Night.

The Young Peoples' Association of the Calvary Evangelical church held a long but exceedingly interesting meeting at the home of C. V. Zachman on South Prospect street, Monday evening. The attendance was exceptionally large. The regular monthly business of the association was transacted after which an excellent literary program was rendered. The Y. P. A. quartette rendered several pleasing selections and Mrs. C. V. Zachman sang a beautiful solo. A novel feature of the program was the manner of observing New Year's eve. Mr. Cicero Zachman played the part of "Old Father

Time" and gave a splendid review of events of the past year especially referring to the many accomplishments of the association. He was followed by Miss Sarah Myers who ushered in the New Year with a short clever talk, in which she dealt mainly with the many possibilities of the New Year. A piano duet by Mrs. F. S. Snyder and Miss Ina Klinefelter was a very pleasing number. The program was concluded with the reading of the Y. P. A. chronicle by Miss Nettie Johnston.

A social session followed and in the drawing contest, the principal social feature, Miss Hazel Wood won the first prize. Light refreshments were served. At the dawning of the New Year, Rev. Hensel conducted short and impressive consecration services.

RECEIVER TAKES CHARGE

Of Marion Manufacturing Company Affairs.

ONLY FIFTEEN WORKMEN

Will be Released by Reason of the Failure.

Plenty of Work on Hand to Keep Foundry and Machine Shop Employees Busy Some Time.

Mr. James Bastable, as receiver of the Marion Manufacturing Company, assumed charge of the institution in his new capacity Tuesday morning. As stated in Monday's issue of this paper, the purpose of the receivership is a liquidation of the company's affairs, and the work of "cleaning up" will begin at once.

So far as the men employed in the shop are concerned, the failure is not going to be as far reaching as might at first have been expected. Mr. Bastable stated Tuesday morning that not more than fifteen men would have to be released by reason of the failure.

The foundry and machine shop forces have for some time been employed in turning out work for the Marion Steam Shovel company, and there is still sufficient work of this character to keep these two departments running at their full capacity. This is a gratifying condition of affairs which Mr. Bastable will probably be allowed to maintain as agent of the Federal court.

Further than this, however, he will not be permitted to go on in the conduct of the business. If conditions should seem to justify it, more men will be added from time to time, the men released now, to be reinstated wherever possible. The shop has been running with practically the minimum force for several months, and for this reason there are but few employees who will be affected by the failure.

BANKS NOT AFFECTED.
In this connection it might be well to state that persistent but unverified rumors have been circulated to the effect that the various Marion banking institution held papers against the Manufacturing company for large amounts; so large in fact that it would seriously affect the banks.

This story is absolutely without foundation. An investigation of the matter Tuesday showed that there is practically no Marion Manufacturing Company paper held by any of the local banks. The little there is, all of it not aggregating $1000, is amply secured by collateral and will have absolutely no effect on the banks. In fact, the reluctance and refusal of the local banks to handle the company's paper, is one of the immediate causes for the failure. All the local banks "cleaned up" on this paper about three weeks ago and since then have refused to extend credit to the concern. This left the company without credit at home, and without such credit it was impossible to obtain credit out of town.

The very fact of the failure is the surest guarantee that local banks have not advanced money to the company, and is the best assurance that the banks were not placed in a position of holding a lot of paper, the value of which might under the circumstances be termed questionable.
